

Critical Comfort for Suffering Saints

Romans 8:28

Key Idea: Knowing that God accomplishes his eternal purposes by working all things together for the good of those who love him and are called by him, brings comfort in times of suffering.

1. God works all things together for good, even our suffering.
2. Knowing that God works all things together for good serves as a comfort during times of suffering.
3. God has an eternal purpose which he will accomplish.
