

(RE) COMMITMENT, CHARACTER, AND CONFIDENCE

GENESIS 13:1-18

Three aspects of Abram's restoration

1. His (re) commitment to obedience.

To be restored from disobedience, we must...

a. Repent of our spiritual compromise.

Genesis 13:1 | ¹ So Abram went up from Egypt, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the Negeb.

b. Return to our starting point with God.

Genesis 13:3-4 | ³ And he journeyed on from the Negeb as far as Bethel to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, ⁴ to the place where he had made an altar at the first. And there Abram called upon the name of the Lord.

2. His character in conflict.

Our character is revealed when we...

a. Recognize the potential for problems.

Genesis 13:5-7 | ⁵ And Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents, ⁶ so that the land could not support both of them dwelling together; for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together, ⁷ and there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites were dwelling in the land.

b. Realize the value of people over privilege.

Genesis 13:8 | ⁸ Then Abram said to Lot, "Let there be no strife between you and me, and between your herdsmen and my herdsmen, for we are kinsmen.

c. Relinquish preference for peace.

Genesis 13:9 |⁹ Is not the whole land before you? Separate yourself from me. If you take the left hand, then I will go to the right, or if you take the right hand, then I will go to the left.”

d. Remain in the place of promise.

Genesis 13:10-13 |¹⁰ And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw that the Jordan Valley was well watered everywhere like the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, in the direction of Zoar. (This was before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.)¹¹ So Lot chose for himself all the Jordan Valley, and Lot journeyed east. Thus they separated from each other.¹² Abram settled in the land of Canaan, while Lot settled among the cities of the valley and moved his tent as far as Sodom.¹³ Now the men of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against the Lord.

3. His confidence in God.

Having confidence in God means living...

a. Secure in the promise.

Genesis 13:14-17 |¹⁴ The Lord said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, “Lift up your eyes and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward,¹⁵ for all the land that you see I will give to you and to your offspring forever.¹⁶ I will make your offspring as the dust of the earth, so that if one can count the dust of the earth, your offspring also can be counted.¹⁷ Arise, walk through the length and the breadth of the land, for I will give it to you.”

b. Secure in the promise.

Genesis 13:14-17 |¹⁴ The Lord said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him, “Lift up your eyes and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward,¹⁵ for all the land that you see I will give to you and to your offspring forever.¹⁶ I will make your offspring as the dust of the earth, so that if one can count the dust of the earth, your offspring also can be counted.¹⁷ Arise, walk through the length and the breadth of the land, for I will give it to you.”
