

Two Ways: Will It Be the Easy Way or the Hard Way?

Matthew 7:13-14

1. We must choose between two gates.

a. The wide gate.

Matthew 7:13b | <sup>13b</sup> For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many.

b. The narrow gate.

Matthew 7:13a, 14 | <sup>13</sup> Enter by the narrow gate...<sup>14</sup> For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.

2. We must choose between two ways.

a. The easy way of worldliness.

Matthew 7:13b | <sup>13b</sup> For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many.

b. The hard way of discipleship.

Matthew 7:14 | <sup>14</sup> For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.

3. We must choose between two destinations.

a. The way of destruction which is death.

Matthew 7:13b | <sup>13b</sup> For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many.

b. The way of Christ which is life.

Matthew 7:14 | <sup>14</sup> For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.
